PATRIMONIO WINE ROADS

The island wine road obviously goes to Patrimonio, between Bastia and Saint-Florent.

This appellation area spreads over 7 villages.

Once again, wine growers innovated by turning the road crossing their village into so many tasting steps.

Patrimonio is a liting name on the bottles of one of the best wines of the island and the oldest. Here, everything is built on the vine, and more than anywhere else; the sun is burning and flooding with light on the wine grapes. A few kilometers from Saint-Florent bay, the vineyard benefits from the positive effects of the sea breeze.

On this calcareous soil, lined with local traditional grape varieties, the vines will give a delicate and balanced wine; the red wines are gorgeous with venison and violet flavours; the white ones are fruity "à l'attaque ronde" and also the Muscats, slightly smoked, great as an aperitif as well as a after dinner or lunch.

Patrimonio wines win every year a lot of medals at the different agricultural shows and the Paris one as proof of its success.

The starting point of this road is obviously the village of Patrimonio, located halfway between Bastia and Saint-Florent on the D81 road.

A sign on the D81 roadside will show you the way to the vineyards. Start with the Marfisi merchant, continue with the picturesque Antoine Arena vineyard, a bit further.

On your way , you'll see from the road, the Saint Martin stone church, do not hesitate to go and visit it. At the roundabout at the village exit, take the direction of Nonza (D81 road) in order to get to the vineyard of Stéphanie Olmeta, who is a nice Corsican wine grower.

Backtrack and at the roundabout, take the Saint-Florent road, and you'll find the Orenga de Gaffory vineyard 500 meters on your left.

There, you can enjoy permanent exhibitions of various artists.

From this cellar, keep going on the passable trail in the middle of the vines in order to discover the Marengo vineyards, owned by a young enthusiast couple who developed a now popular Muscat.

Twist then towards Saint-Florent and you'll find a little further on your right the Gentile vineyards. Once in the center, take the "cathedral road" on your right at the junction with a small roundabout (Société Générale bank). Further on the same road, you'll find Yves Leccia vineyards.

If you wish to go back, keep going on the same road for 4km, then turn left at the hairpin bend, and you'll get on the road to Bastia that will take you back to the Cap Corse.

If you wish to continue your visit, at the hairpin bend, turn right direction Oletta to visit the vineyard of Santa Maria and Mariotti. Once at the round-about, keep driving towards the village of Casta (15 minutes) where you could discover the où vous pourrez découvrir The Domaine Pinelli & its excellent muscat.
